

INTERCOLLEGIATE TAEKWONDO CHAMPIONSHIP REPORT

The Don Bosco College of Engineering participated in the Intercollegiate Taekwondo Championship with a total of four players representing the institution in both the men's and women's categories.

Men's Category:

- Sanjeev Parab showcased an impressive performance, winning two matches in a row. However, his journey was halted in the quarterfinals, where he faced a strong opponent from Rosary College.
- Alieaster also put up a commendable fight but unfortunately lost his quarterfinal match against a player from Rosary College.

Women's Category:

- Sachi Bokade faced a tough challenge and was unable to secure a win in her match against Rosary College.
- Zoe Zuzarth competed with determination but was defeated in her match against Don Bosco Panjim.

Despite the losses in the quarterfinals, the participants demonstrated skill and sportsmanship, making the college proud with their efforts. The experience gained in this tournament will undoubtedly contribute to their growth and future success in the sport.
